

Spring Awakening

Flowers softly open in colors bright,
Meadows sparkle under spring's warm light.

Branches sway in winds so mild,
Birds fly high, free and wild.

Sunlight warms the earth with gentle care,
Life returns, emerging everywhere.
Spring now sings of joy and grace,
Sunshine gently touches every face.

